

Treatment for Clarity and loving acceptance of childhood memories:

I recognize that there is a Divine Activity, a Loving, Benevolent Presence that is the Only Presence and only Power in all of this creation, life, and world, -in all that exists, both seen and unseen. I know that this Presence is Eternal, limitless, undivided, and for the Good of all.

I acknowledge that the Divine Presence is my Presence, that my Being is God's Being, that I am made of, sustained, enlightened, guided, and inspired from this Presence that is my true Self, and the Self of the entire world - universe. There is only the Supreme Being, manifesting as all of us, all of life....we are One.

I know that it is a Spiritual Truth, that in all of Eternity, my life is whole. My past – my childhood - is whole and complete, beautiful and perfect, just as it is. I know that God has been, Is, and forever shall be the Life that I am; witness in every experience, that dancer that does the doing, the thinker that thinks, the observer who watches. I know that all who were present in my childhood are a part of God and therefore made whole. I know there is no limitation to the amount of healing, transformation, forgiveness, and release that is available to me and to everyone right now.

All aspects of myself, my history, my childhood, my challenges, my dreams and endeavors, are all of the same Supreme Being. In this I find clarity of mind and loving acceptance of my beautiful childhood. I know that I am Blessed, in my life now, in my past as a child, in all the beliefs I plant into the Law of Mind, and in the memories I carry with me...

I am moved with Gratitude, gratitude for my life, for my Being, for my existence, for my indwelling God.

I let go, surrendering the words of this prayer, into the Loving Light of God, into the Law of Mind.

And so It Is.

Amen.
